This ayah has been repeated by each of the messengers whose story has been mentioned in Surah Ash-Shu'ara' : Nuh, Hud, Lut and Shu'aib عليهم السلام.

All the messengers had the same message, but different stories and situations. They all went through different nurturing. The ends of their stories are also mentioned in the same way.

وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

And I do not ask you for it any payment. My payment is only from the Lord of the worlds

[أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ]

١

All of the messengers told their nations to have taqwa, which would make them leave their sins. They identified themselves as messengers for their people specifically. The messenger guides his people to believe.

[إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ]

٢

All of the messengers assured their people that they were trustworthy. It is important to gain the trust of the people, or they would not follow them. The trustworthy messenger would not change the message in any way, by decreasing or increasing it. He would convey exactly what Allah said.

[فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا]

٣

[وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ]

٤

They again urged their people to have taqwa, and obey what they said. This comes gradually, when the people began to obey them. They tried to remove any obstacles or uneasiness from the people by telling them they didn't want reimbursement from them for the message. This is very important to clean the message and the messenger from any negative connotations. The message is very pure. The messengers wanted a reward only from the Lord of all the worlds. This removes any burden from the people. Their Rabb would reward them with the best, give them great favours, and draw them close to Him. For the people they offered pure advice, with asking for and expecting nothing in return.

All the messengers had the same mission and the same goal. Their reward is from رب العالمين. No one can match that reward. The message is not affected by human weaknesses.
